Horace Leon Porter, Sr.

April 19, 1937 - December 28, 2023

Celebrating the Life of

Horace Leon Porter, Sr.

Friday, January 5, 2024 11:00 a.m.
Broussard's Chapel
Winnie, Texas
Chaplain Clark Davis

"Grandpa (Tell Me 'Bout the Good Old Days)"
by The Judds

Opening Remarks

Family Reflections
Tiffany Arevalo
Cammie Porter

"Cool Water"
by Marty Robbins

Message of Hope

"El Paso"
by Marty Robbins

Prayer

"When the Thought of You Catches up with Me"
by David Ball

"Orange Blossom Special"
by Charlie McCoy

Horace Leon Porter, Sr., 86, of Fannett, died Thursday, December 28, 2023. He was born April 19, 1937, in Nacogdoches, to Francis Lee Johnson Porter and Jewel Elgin Porter.

Leon enjoyed cooking holiday dinners for his family and friends every holiday. He also enjoyed coaching minor, little, and pony league baseball. Leon enjoyed watching his kids play sports, never missing a game. He enjoyed watching NHRA drag racing as well as working on vehicles. His hobbies were fishing and squirrel hunting. Leon is fondly remembered as a loving husband, father, and Pawpaw.

Survivors include children, Donna Watson and husband, David, of Fannett; Christy Fountain and husband, Kevin, of Port Arthur; Donald Porter and wife, Sherry, of Fannett; Kenneth W. Porter and wife, Dora, of San Antonio; fourteen grandchildren; many great-grandchildren; brother, Max Porter and wife, Judy, of California; sister, Helen Hanley of Fannett; numerous nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents; wife, Ima Jean Porter; son, Horace Leon "JuJu" Porter Jr.; and sister, Mary Hooks.

GENUINE AND ORIGINAL America
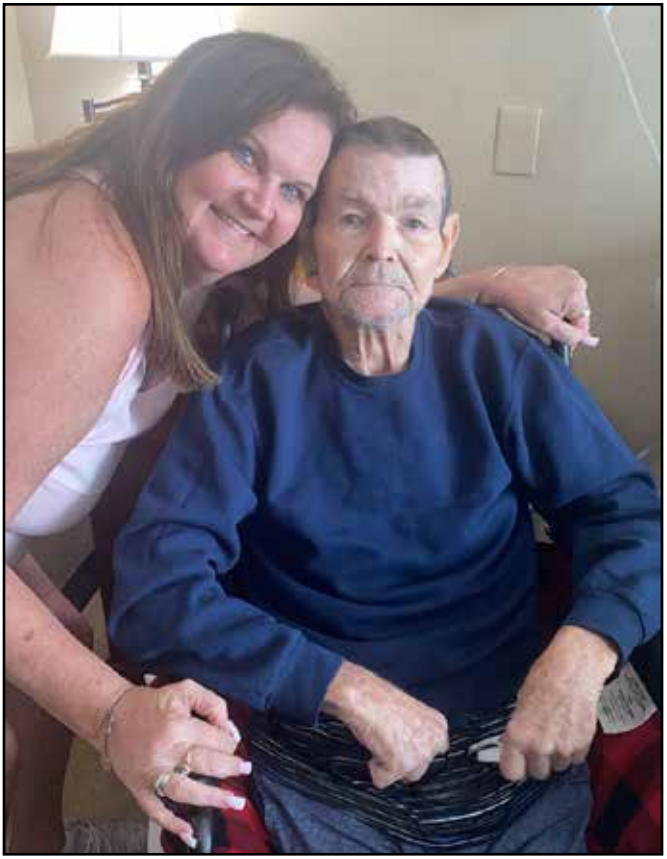
EST.



Pallbearers

Dwayne Porter
Casey Porter
Jeremy Porter
Josh Foxworth
Devin Porter
Shawn Hanley

Interment

Broussard Cemetery
Fannett, Texas

Broussard's
Established 1889

Please sign Mr. Porter's guest book and share your memories at broussards1889.com