

Gregory Earl Simmons

November 1, 1961 - January 31, 2024

Celebrating the Life of Gregory Earl Simmons

Tuesday, February 6, 2024 2:00 p.m.
Broussard's Chapel
Beaumont, Texas
Reverend Jeff Lowe

"I Can Only Imagine"
by MercyMe

Opening Prayer

Obituary

Opening Remarks

"(Sittin' On) The Dock of the Bay"
by Otis Redding

Family Reflections
Richard Bryant (Introduction)
Kevin Kulhanek (Story)
Erika Whipple (Remembrance)
Richard Bryant (Prayer)

"Three Little Birds"
by Bob Marley

Message of Comfort

"Turn the Page"
by Bob Seger

"Broken Halos"
by Chris Stapleton

Gregory Earl Simmons, 62, of Lumberton, died Wednesday, January 31, 2024. He was born on November 1, 1961, in Beaumont to Patricia Ann Albarado Simmons and Richard Lee Simmons, Jr. Gregory was the Vice President of Triple “S” Industrial Corporation and was a member and former Past Master of Lumberton Lodge No. 1430.

Survivors include his wife of seventeen years, Shanda Simmons; children, Erika Whipple and her husband, Bryan, of League City; Harley Simmons of Lumberton; Jacob Simmons of Lumberton; grandchildren, Poet Whipple and Indie Whipple; his parents, Pat and Dickie Simmons of Kountze; brother, Rickey Simmons and his wife, Dona, of Lumberton; sister, Susan Kulhanek and her husband, Kevin, of Kountze; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers

Ernest Anderson
Chas Simmons
Kevin Kulhanek, Jr.
Kalin Kulhanek
C.W. Williamson
Joe Williamson
Rafe Simmons
Bryan Whipple

Interment

Old Hardin Cemetery
Kountze, Texas

Please sign Mr. Simmons' guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com