Blake Jude Landis Alexander, 11, of Kountze, died unexpectedly Saturday, March 9, 2024. He was born on September 30, 2012, in Beaumont, to Karissa Hopkins and Jarden Alexander.

Blake was such a smart and funny young boy. He was a jokester who liked to roughhouse with his Uncle Parker and enjoyed picking on his Grandma, Amanda. He treasured the time spent with his Papa Joey and Nanny Bridgette. He loved to play video games and watch YouTube. Some of Blake's greatest joys were going to the lake where he swam and fished with his family. He loved pizza and Dr. Pepper.

Survivors include his mother, Karissa Hopkins of Kountze; father, Jarden Alexander of Kountze; brother, Kristopher Landis Alexander of Kountze; grandparents, Amanda Landis of Kountze; Joe Hopkins and Ashley Garza of Lumberton; and Joey and Bridgette Alexander of Huntington; great-grandparents, Orval and Juanita Landis of Kountze; Harrell and Karen Guidry of Groves; and Ann Alexander of Silsbee; and uncle, Parker Ray of Kountze.

He is preceded in death by his grandmother, Deanna Hinkle; great-grandfather, Gravis Alexander; uncle, Blake Alexander; and cousins, Rhett Barrow, Braxton Barrow and Noah Morse.

The background of the page is a light gray grid pattern. Scattered across this grid are several neon-style icons of video game controllers. The icons are drawn with thick, glowing lines in various colors: yellow, light blue, and pink. Some icons show the full controller, while others show just the buttons or joysticks. The overall aesthetic is playful and nostalgic, related to gaming.
