Lynda Carol Bobino, 81, of High Island, died Monday, March 4, 2024. She was born on January 25, 1943, to Lottie Marie and Lee Roy Turner.

Lynda loved doing anything outside, including gardening and fishing. Anyone was welcome at her home at any time. She enjoyed dancing in her early years but recently she has been enjoying word searches and jigsaw puzzles.

She volunteered for most of the things that happened in High Island. If anyone ever needed anything, she was always available. She retired after 26 years of service from High Island I.S.D on May 31, 2003. Lynda was fondly known as the “Cafeteria Lady.”

Survivors include her son, Paul Bobino and his wife, Selina Hall, of High Island; sister, Mary Jo Bergeron and her husband, Dale, of Hamshire; niece, Candyce and her husband, Tommy Hopkins, of Carencro, Louisiana; nephew, Jacque and his wife, Jori Bergeron, of Hamshire; and numerous other family members.

She is preceded in death by her parents and husband, B.P. Bobino.
