

We believe that all the ties of friendship and affection which knit us as one throughout our lives
do not unravel with death.

Richard (Dick) Osborn, 95, of Beaumont, Texas, passed away April 1, 2024.

Born in Haverhill, Massachusetts, on October 22, 1928, to Russell Osborn, Sr., and Olive (McCue) Osborn, Richard was the youngest of three brothers.

A US Army World War II veteran, Richard was a devoted husband, father, uncle, and grandfather. He was a devout Catholic and always made it to mass no matter where he was.

He was a kind, gentle, giving man that helped others in any way he could. Whether it was counting money at St. Jude Thaddeus Catholic Church, doing woodworking projects, supporting literacy programs, or taking reading material to the Seafarers' Center, he was always helping those in need.

He had a great sense of humor, loved engaging his many nieces and nephews, and always rode the carousel. He sometimes ordered dessert first, would claim the center of his birthday cake, and always ate the ears first from the chocolate easter bunny.

Richard met Joan Dullaghan while attending college and they were married 2 months after he graduated in 1955 with a Civil Engineering degree. He started working in Zanesville, Ohio, where their son, Gary Osborn was born in 1957. His career took them from Ohio to Bellingham, Washington; Beaumont, Texas; Sulphur, Louisiana; and back to Beaumont, where he retired from PPG Industries in 1991.

He met his second wife, Billie Butts, while playing bridge with mutual friends and they were married in 2000. They were both avid travelers and enjoyed many trips to visit family, friends and to see the world. He regularly attended Calder Baptist services with Billie and developed strong relationships with the Calder Baptist family.

Richard is survived by his current wife of 24 years, Billie Osborn; his son, Gary Osborn of Beaumont; stepdaughter, Brooksie Bennett of Houston; stepson, Michael Butts and his wife, Shelby of Houston; granddaughter, Zoe Butts of Houston; and numerous nieces, nephews, godchildren, and beloved family members.

He is preceded in death by his first wife of 44 years, Joan Dullaghan Osborn; brothers, Russell Osborn Jr. and his wife, Rita (Riopel) Osborn and Kenneth Osborn and his wife, Anna (McGlew) Osborn.
