GREETING:

Friends, we have gathered here to praise God and to witness to our faith as we celebrate the life of Betty Rae Rice Allen. We come together in grief; acknowledging our human loss. May God grant us grace that in pain we may find comfort, in sorrow hope, and in death resurrection.

GATHERING:

Dying, Christ destroyed our death. Rising, Christ restored our life. Christ will come again in glory. As in baptism, Betty put on Christ, so in Christ may Betty be clothed in glory. Here and now, dear friends, we are God's children. What we shall be has not yet been revealed. But we know that when he appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. Those who have this hope purify themselves, as Christ is pure.

“HYMN OF PROMISE”

JOHN 14:1-7

PSALM 23 (as chosen by Betty Allen)

The LORD was my shepherd; I did not want. He made me to lie down in green pastures. He led me beside the still waters. He restored my soul. He led me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea though I walked through the valley of the shadow of death; I feared no evil. For he was with me; his rod and his staff they comforted me. He prepared a table before me in the presence of my enemies. He anointed my head with oil. My cup ran over. Surely goodness and mercy followed me all the days of my life. And now I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies.
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
