Gathering Rites

Reception at the Cathedral Door

Jeanette was baptized in Christ. Her body is now received at the door of the Cathedral, sprinkled with holy water and covered with the white pall as a reminder of her baptism.

We pray that as Jeanette died and rose with Christ, that she may now be clothed in the radiance of Christ's eternal glory.

Gathering Hymn

On Eagle's Wings

Refrain

And he will raise you up on ea - gle's wings, bear you on the breath of dawn, make you to shine like the sun, and hold you in the palm of his hand.

After last refrain

And hold you, hold you in the palm of his hand.

The image shows four staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The first staff is marked 'Refrain' and contains the first line of lyrics. The second and third staves continue the melody and lyrics. The fourth staff is marked 'After last refrain' and contains the final line of lyrics. The lyrics are: 'And he will raise you up on ea - gle's wings, bear you on the breath of dawn, make you to shine like the sun, and hold you in the palm of his hand. And hold you, hold you in the palm of his hand.'

Reception of Holy Communion

For Catholics: As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible (canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

For our fellow Christians: We welcome our fellow Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they may all be one" (Jn 17:21).

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires permission according to the directives of the diocesan bishop and the provisions of canon law (canon 844 §4). Members of the Orthodox Churches, the Assyrian Church of the East, and the Polish National Catholic Church are urged to respect the discipline of their own Churches. According to Roman Catholic discipline, the Code of Canon Law does not object to the reception of Communion by Christians of these Churches (canon 844 §3).

For all not receiving Communion: All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.

For non-Christians: We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.

Communion Hymn

Taste and See

Refrain

Taste and see, taste and see the good - ness of the Lord. O taste and see, taste and see the good - ness of the Lord, of the Lord.

The image shows three staves of musical notation in G major, 4/4 time. The first staff is labeled 'Refrain' and contains the melody for the first line of lyrics. The second staff continues the melody for the second line. The third staff concludes the melody for the third line. The lyrics are printed below the notes.

Jeanette Caudillo, 81, of Houston, formerly of Beaumont, died on Mother's Day, Sunday, May 12, 2024.

Jeanette was born on October 3, 1942, in Rayne, Louisiana. She graduated from Beaumont High School in 1961. After graduation, she worked as an optical technician for Texas State Optical (TSO) Laboratory for 30 years. After leaving TSO, Jeanette received a Medical Office Skills Certificate from Lamar University. She utilized her new skills to start a second career at Christus St. Elizabeth's Hospital, where she worked as a Cash Posting Clerk for 10 years, until she officially retired in 2003.

In 1971, Jeanette married her loving husband, John Gilbert "Click" Caudillo. They were blessed with two boys, Ramon and Larry. Jeanette was very proud of her sons, always encouraging them to work hard in school, athletics and extracurricular activities.

Jeanette was a devoted member of the Catholic Church and St. Anthony's Cathedral Basilica. She dedicated many years to the church as a Eucharistic Minister and a member of the Cathedral Ladies. She believed in the value of a Catholic education. Both of her sons attended St. Anthony's Catholic School and Monsignor Kelly Catholic High School and were altar servers from 2nd grade through the end of high school.

Jeanette's life was a testament to her unwavering faith and love to others. She always answered the call to help those in need and filled the role of mother to many beyond her two sons.

Jeanette is survived by her son, Larry Caudillo and daughter-in-law Joanna Caudillo of Houston; grandsons, Anthony and Matthew Caudillo; and granddaughter, Isabella Caudillo of Houston; and 22 nephews and nieces.

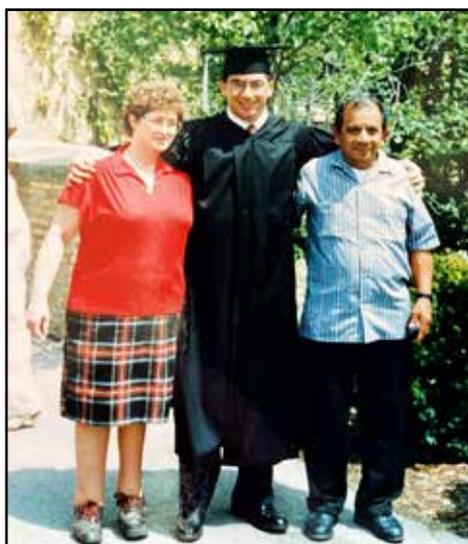

She is preceded in death by her husband, John Gilbert "Click" Caudillo; her son, Ramon Caudillo; her parents, Sylvain and Aurelia Sonnier; her brothers, Charles and Nelson Sonnier; and sister, Juanita Sonnier.
