Samuel "Sammy" Villarreal, 56, of Beaumont, passed away Thursday, May 2, 2024. He was born on June 29, 1967, in Edinburg, to Maria Elva Flores and Leopoldo Villarreal. Sammy moved to Beaumont when he was 19. He worked for the Kettle Restaurant then Brown and Root Construction, later Performance Truck from August 1992 and was a diesel mechanic for 32 years. He met his wife, Kathy, on May 19, 1991, and they later married on April 3, 1999, and have four handsome sons together.

Sammy was a very hard-working man and awesome provider. He was caring, loving, sweet, compassionate, a wonderful friend, and never met a stranger. Sammy loved his family more than life and was so proud of his sons. He has a large family and many loved ones.

Survivors include his wife, Kathy Villarreal; sons, Samuel C. Villarreal, and his fiancé, Danielle Johnson; Shane A. Villarreal and his girlfriend, Nyreem Rodriguez; Justin C. Villarreal and his fiancé, Nicole Archuleta; and Austin B. L. Villarreal and his girlfriend, Brianna Herrmann; grandchildren, Isabella Villarreal, Mason Villarreal, Nevaeh Villarreal, Madelyn Villarreal, and Paisley Villarreal; siblings, Jorge-Luis Rodriguez; Julio Antonio; Jesus Mario Rodriguez and his wife, Gracie Solis; San Juanita Rodriguez; Martina Rodriguez; Jamie Rodriguez; Javier Rodriguez Valdez; Sylvia Villarreal; Noemi Villarreal; Celia Villarreal; Emanuel Rodriguez; and Flabio Rodriguez; mother-in-law, Connie Collier; siblings-in-law, Larry G. Martin and his wife, Shirley; Dean Martin and his wife, Lori; Sherry Tupper; Robert Martin; Ralph Martin and his wife, Stacy; and JC Copps and her husband, Matt; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other family and friends.

Sammy is preceded in death by his parents; brothers, Jose Guadalupe-Rodriguez, and Juan-Rene Rodriguez; niece, Danielle Rodriguez; and father-in-law, Larry Martin.

A person is seen from behind, wearing a red baseball jersey with "SPRINGER" and the number "4" on the back. They are standing in a large stadium with many rows of empty seats. The scene is brightly lit, possibly from the sun or stadium lights, creating a hazy atmosphere.
