Glenda Sue Wilson, 81, of Silsbee, died Thursday, May 2, 2024. She was born on July 29, 1942, in Calcasieu, Louisiana, to Olga Virginia Dartez Moss and Arnold Lee Moss.

Glenda raised four strong-minded children and she took great pride in the way that they turned out. She was a community mom in the way that everyone always knew that her door would be open for all to come visit. She made sure to instill family traditions into her children and grandchildren such as making cookies with homemade icing, carving pumpkins, homemade holiday dinners, and filling up the Christmas tree with handcrafted decorations. Her favorite job was to be the “official taste tester” at all family gatherings. During the Christmas season, she was known for crocheting barbie clothes, scarves, and hats to donate to those who needed them.

Glenda also had a love for being outdoors. She enjoyed being at the beach where she would collect shells. Her children hold fond memories of her teaching them the art of crabbing. After losing her first husband, Edward, to cancer, Glenda remarried to Bill. They began enjoying a life of traveling from one campground to another and always looked forward to trips with family and friends.

After settling down back in Silsbee, Glenda spent most of her days enjoying her family. She looked forward to weekly visits from her great-grandchildren and celebrating any and all of their accomplishments. Her love for the outdoors was also visible in her gardening. She enjoyed raising plants and always had a productive garden.

Survivors include her husband, Billy Joe Wilson; children, David Stutzenburg and his wife, Michelle, of Martin Mill; Danny Stutzenburg and his wife, Tammy, of Silsbee; and Judy Stutzenburg and her spouse, Jerry Jenkins, of Silsbee; grandchildren, Amanda Moreno, her husband, George, and their daughters, Isabella and Olivia, of Silsbee; Richard Calloway; Tre' Spurlock; Kristi Premeaux and her husband, Jeremy; and Aaron Lasseigne and his wife, Nickie; ten great-grandchildren; siblings, June Moss of Hackberry, Louisiana; Sonny Moss and his wife, Kay, of Mauriceville; and Evelyn Jungen and her husband, Eddie, of Lumberton; and numerous other family members and friends.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Olga and Arnold Moss; husband, Edward Martin Stutzenburg; son, Bruce Stutzenburg; great-granddaughter, Emalynn Calloway; and brother, Bobby Moss.
