Irene
Honeycutt

Edna “Irene” Brown, 87, of Kountze, died Saturday, June 29, 2024. She was born on February 18, 1937, in Winnie, to Irene Boudreaux Honeycutt and Walter Thurman Honeycutt.

Edna Irene Brown was the oldest of 8 kids, she had 4 sisters and 3 brothers. She and her husband Daniel Williford “DW” Brown, Sr. had 3 sons together and between those 3 children she had 8 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren, and 9 great-great-grandchildren. She was lovingly known as Sister, Mama, and MawMaw. Growing up she spent most of her life as a mother, from helping raise her siblings to raising her own children. She just had a natural way with kids, and they were always drawn to her, even if she wasn't their grandmother, they likely called her MawMaw.

She was a 1955 graduate of East Chambers High School where she was known as a basketball star and was a top scorer in every game. She helped lead her team to the state championship all 4 years of high school and they won twice. She loved playing basketball and later in life she found a love for shooting pool at various local pool halls. She also enjoyed spending time camping with her family at either the lake or the deer lease.

Another one of her greatest skills was her ability to cook up some of the best down home country cuisines you could imagine! No one ever went hungry while at her house. Her favorite color was purple, and she enjoyed watching old westerns and listening to her CD collection of classic country gospel songs.

To know her was to love her and boy was she loved!

Survivors include her sons, Daniel Brown of Kountze; and Otha Brown and his wife, Becky, of Broaddus; grandchildren, Danielle Deaton and her husband, David, of Kountze; Jeramie Brown and his wife, Nancy, of Kountze; Nikki Henley and her husband, Bobby, of Silsbee; Racheal Brown of Kountze; Justin Brown and his wife, Heidi, of Mineola; Jessica Burks and her husband, Kevin, of Kountze; Ashley Gaige of League City; and Alex Brown and his wife, Haley, of Vidor; twenty-one great-grandchildren; nine great-great-grandchildren; and siblings, Margaret Thompson of Kountze; Glenda Kyzer and her husband, James, of Kountze; Bambi Larkins and her husband, Mel, of Huntsville; Troy Honeycutt and his wife, Cherry, of Big Bear, California; and Mattie Long of Shepherd.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Irene and Walter Honeycutt; husband, Daniel "D.W." Brown, Sr.; son, Roy Brown; brothers, Walter Honeycutt and Freddie Honeycutt; and great-great-grandchild, Emerson Bianco.

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

*When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
Are filled with tears for me
I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say
I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
And each time you think of me
I know you'll miss me too
But when tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand
And said my place was ready
In heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love
But when I walked through Heaven's gate
I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me
From His great golden throne
He said this is eternity
And all I promised you
Today your life on earth is past
But here it starts anew
I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last
And since each day's the same way
There's no longing for the past
So when tomorrow starts without me
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me
I'm right here in your heart*
