Jimmy Semien was born to Morris Semien and Norvella Smith in Beaumont, Texas, on March 5, 1950, and passed away peacefully on Sunday, June 2, 2024, at the age of 74. In 1968, Jimmy met the love of his life, Jolynn Semien, and they were married on February 8, 1973. They shared 26 wonderful years of marriage and together raised three sons, Micheal, Reggie, Conan. Later in life, Jimmy had another son, Ben Jackson, then was blessed with two beautiful daughters, Shayla and Shajamia

Semien. Jimmy had five sisters and four brothers. He also had nine grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Morris Sr. and Norvella Smith; brothers Morris Jr., Julius Orebo, Bennie Orebo, and Danny Orebo; and sister, Trina Anderson.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory his sisters, Ella Semien (Willard), Jackie Day, Regina Hayward, and Idella Lewis; children; grandchildren; great-grandchildren, and many friends.

During his youth, Jimmy had a passion for reading comic books, particularly “Conan The Barbarian.” As he grew older, his interests expanded to a wide variety of movie genres, TV shows especially westerns and a great appreciation for humor. His passion for art and creativity was evident in his work, leaving behind a legacy of imagination and talent. Jimmy will be remembered for his kindness, sense of humor, and dedication to his family. His love for storytelling and art brought joy to many, and his creative spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew him. Jimmy’s life was a testament to love, family, and creativity. He leaves behind a rich tapestry of memories that will forever be cherished by his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and all who had the pleasure of knowing him.
