Valery Danell Puentes, 54, of Silsbee, died Monday, June 10, 2024. She was born on September 15, 1969, in Beaumont, to Linda Woodward Lawrence and Dan Lawrence.

Valery's artwork can be found all over Southeast Texas, having won several awards. She was an avid hunter, winning a big buck contest and she loved to fish as well. Valery was a substitute teacher with the Silsbee Independent School District and a previous member of the Icehouse Museum Board. She was very knowledgeable of Native American Artifacts, sharing her comprehension with anyone who would listen. She truly was a "jack of all trades."

Survivors include her husband, Clay Puentes; daughters, Shelby Foxworth and her husband, Chase, of Warren and Sidney Puentes of Silsbee; nephews, Jason and Rennie Fontaine of Silsbee and their sons, Greg Lundvick and Will Fontaine as well as Allen and Crystal Fontaine of Silsbee and their daughters, Avery, Zaylie, and Jentry; and numerous other family and friends. She is preceded in death by her father, Dan Lawrence.
