RECESSIONAL

David Eric Heinz, 51, of Beaumont, Texas, passed away unexpectedly on August 22, 2024. Born on April 23, 1973, David was a cherished husband, father, son, brother, and community member known for his dedication to both his family and his work.

David is a graduate of Lamar University, where he was a proud four-year starter on the Lamar Men's Soccer Team. His career as a Financial Advisor at Sunbelt Securities was marked by his commitment to helping others achieve their financial goals. Beyond his professional achievements, David was deeply involved in his community. He contributed his time and efforts to Monsignor Kelly Catholic High School, St. Anne Catholic School, Boy Scouts of America - Three Rivers Council, Beaumont Rotary Club, Trinity Methodist Church, and various local youth sports programs.

David's greatest joy came from spending time with his family and friends. He was a devoted husband to his wife, Caroline Winslow Heinz, for 18 years, and a loving father to his sons, Thomas Carlyle Heinz, William Robert Heinz, and Weston Everett Monroe. His enthusiasm for attending his boys' sporting events and other school activities was unmatched, and he enjoyed hunting, fishing and exercising in his free time.

He is survived by his wife, Caroline; his sons, Thomas, William, and Weston; his parents, Gary and Jacqueline Heinz; his brothers and their wives, Corey and Brandi Heinz, Joshua and Kimberlin Heinz, and Jacob and Amy Heinz; and all his nieces and nephews. David was preceded in death by his grandparents, Carlyle and Joyce Heinz, Dovie Menard, and Robert Vela.

David will be remembered for his unwavering commitment to his family and community, his passion for enjoying life, and his generous spirit. He will be deeply missed by all those who had the privilege of knowing and loving him.
