

Elizabeth Ann Pound

November 22, 1923 - August 23, 2024

Celebrating the Life of Elizabeth Pound
Wednesday, August 28, 2024 11:00 a.m.
Wildwood Community Church
Village Mills, Texas
Reverend David Foster

Welcome Prayer

“His Eye is on the Sparrow”
by Whitney Houston

Obituary

23rd Psalm

“The Lord’s Prayer”
by Andrea Bocelli

Family Reflections

Old Testament Reading
Isiah 40:31

New Testament
John 14:1-27

Message of Comfort

“The Garden”
by Jimmy Scott

Committal

Benediction

Elizabeth Ann Pound was born on November 22, 1923 in Woodward, Oklahoma to Guy and Malinda Williams. She was the fourth and last child to join the family. She had two older brothers, Hebert and Arthur, and a beloved sister, Esther Mae. Elizabeth attended school in Woodward and continued her education at the local Junior College. While in high school, she met the love of her life, Jack Kennedy Pound, who also lived in Woodward. Even with WWII going on, Elizabeth and Jack were determined to marry. Jack was stationed at Minter Air Force Base in Bakersfield, California, as an Air Force Pilot. Elizabeth hopped on a train and traveled from Oklahoma to California by herself. They were married on October 16, 1943 at the base chapel. Through the years Elizabeth continued to support her husband in all his endeavors and pursuits by caring for their two children and their home. Mealtimes always found the four of them gathered at the same table.

The Pounds moved to Wildwood in 1980 after living in Pasadena, Texas; Vienna, Virginia; Santa Fe, New Mexico; and back to Vienna. When looking for somewhere to live in Texas, they fell instantly in love with Wildwood. They immediately joined everything and volunteered where needed. Elizabeth lost her beloved Jack in 1985 to kidney disease. She was encouraged to move somewhere closer to her children, but she felt safe in Wildwood and remained until February 2022 when she moved to assisted living in Beaumont.

Elizabeth is survived by her son Stephen Ray Pound and his wife, Janie, of Texas City; and by her daughter, Jacqueline Davis of Wildwood. She was blessed with five grandchildren, including Christina Perez of Texas City, Kathryn Davis Cooke of Richmond, Tommy Davis, Jr. of Biloxi, Ron Davis of Cypress, and Don Davis of Freeport. Also surviving are many great grandchildren, great-great grands, and a niece, Malinda Sue Eggleston of Oklahoma City. She is predeceased by her husband Jack Pound, her parents, her siblings, and her son-in-law Tommy Davis, Sr. She also lost her grandson, Brett Davis, grandson-in-law, Chris Cooke, and nephews, Lucky Williams and Toby Weber.

FOOTPRINTS IN THE SAND

One night I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord.

Many scenes from my life flashed across the sky. In each scene I noticed footprints in the sand.

Sometimes there were two sets of footprints, other times there was one only. This bothered me because I noticed that during the low periods of my life, when I was suffering from anguish, sorrow or defeat,

I could see only one set of footprints,
so I said to the Lord,

“You promised me Lord, that if I followed you, you would walk with me always. But I have noticed that during the most trying periods of my life there has only been one set of footprints in the sand.

Why, when I needed you most, have you not been there for me?”

The Lord replied, “The times when you have seen only one set of footprints, my child, is when I carried you.”

Committal
Broussard's Crematorium

Memorial Contributions
Wildwood Community Church
P.O. Box 332
Village Mills, Texas 77663

Broussard's
Established 1889

Please sign Mrs. Pound's guest book and share your memories at broussards1889.com