

Pearl Kinsey Pelt

March 29, 1933 - October 29, 2024

The Twenty-third Psalm

A Psalm of David.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside the still waters.

He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness For His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; For You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil; My cup runs over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the Lord Forever.

Pearl Kinsey Pelt, 91, of Sour Lake passed away peacefully at home surrounded by loved ones Tuesday, October 29, 2024.

Pearl was born March 29, 1933, in Sour Lake, Texas to A.C. Kinsey and Ada Broom. A lifelong resident of Sour Lake, she graduated from Sour Lake High School.

She was married to Arnold Pelt for over 60 years. Together they traveled to many places including Las Vegas and Lake Tahoe among their favorites.

Pearl was an avid reader and even had her very own library where she liked to spend time.

Her favorite pastimes included fishing at Lake Livingston with family and friends, attending cow shows, ballgames, especially basketball games, and going to an occasional concert where Willie Nelson, George Jones, or Loretta Lynn may be performing. Gambling at the casinos was a popular activity for Pearl who was known to be lucky a time or two winning some money, but really it was playing cards on New Year's Eve at her son David's with family to ring in the new year that Pearl always looked forward to doing.

A top fan of Perry Mason, one might find her watching this show regularly along with Jeopardy, the game show where she knew more than a few of the answers. One afternoon after school, on a weekly basis, the grandkids would enter Maw Maw's house to the smell of freshly baked pizza. It was called Pizza Day and was a great gathering of the family. These traditions are what made the Pelt house a place filled with much love and memories.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Arnold Pelt; both of her parents, A.C. and Ada Kinsey; her sisters, Beveline Laughlin, Aline Justice, Babe Woodruff, Betty Maynor; sister-in-law, Judith Pelt; brother-in-law, Alton Pelt; son-in-law, Buck Wall; daughter-in-law, Nancy Pelt; grandson-in-law, Mike Fontenot; nephew, Ryan Justice.

She is survived by her sons, David Pelt and his wife, Connie, and Bobby Pelt and his wife, Julie; daughters, Marilyn "Sissy" Wall and, Judy Bonner and her husband, Craig; and brother-in-law, Kenneth Pelt and his wife, Vickie.

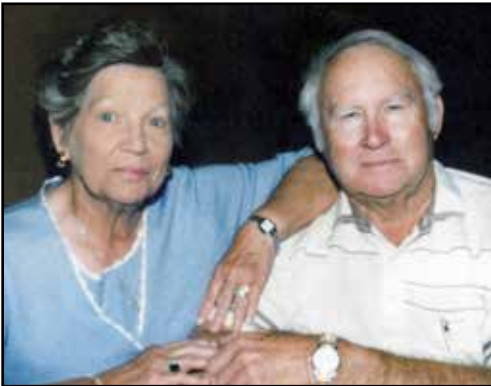

Her seven granddaughters of whom she was so proud, Christy Craigen and her husband, Mark; Michelle Thompson and her husband, John; Debra Rowell and her husband, Tim; Kim Fontenot; Karla Johnson and her husband, Jason; Lisa Ramirez and her husband, Noel; and Jodie Cohen and her husband, Kevin; sixteen great-grandchildren, and six great-great-grandchildren

Serving as pallbearers are Mike Fontenot, Josh Fontenot, Mark Craigen, Kevin Cohen, Noel Ramirez, Brandon Craigen, and Matthew Rowell.

Serving as honorary pallbearers are Ken Pelt, Darrell Pelt, Buddy Simmons, Jimmy Neel, Gunner Ramirez, and JT Thompson.

The family would like to thank Janet Ellerbee and Denise McKnight for taking such loving care of Momma. It is so appreciated.
