Postlude

Marvin Robbie Fannin, 90, of Village Mills, died Monday, April 28, 2025. He was born on January 14, 1935, in Corsicana, to Vesta Bell Trammell Fannin and Marvin Batson Fannin. He was a United States Marine Corps Veteran.

Marvin loved the Lord, his family, and his friends. Through his strong faith in Jesus, he shared Christ's love with everyone who knew him.

For over 50 years, Marvin was a devoted member of Wildwood Baptist Church. He humbly served as a Sunday School Teacher, Deacon, Trustee, and on many church committees. One of his favorite roles was welcoming others as a Greeter. Marvin had a true heart for service and a deep love for both people and his church.

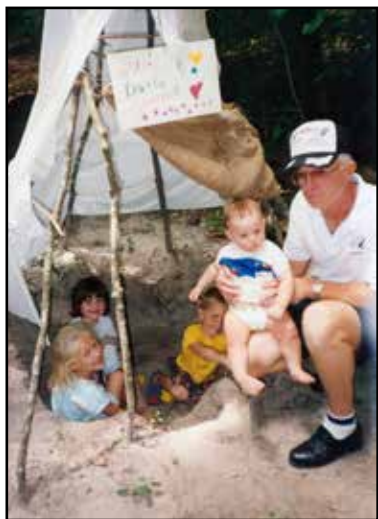

He earned a degree in Chemical Engineering from Texas Tech University and spent 35 years working at the Beaumont plant, managing it under several companies including Mobil, Velsicol, Sandoz, and BASF. His leadership, wisdom, and care for others earned him the deep admiration and respect of all who worked with him.

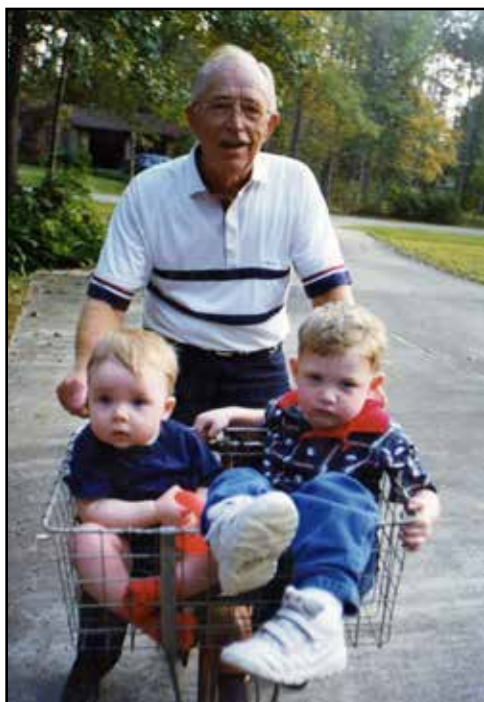

Marvin also found joy on the golf course, where he spent many hours in fellowship with friends. He achieved 13 hole-in-ones on his favorite Wildwood golf course.

Survivors include his loving wife, Wanda Fannin of Village Mills; children, Marvlyn Hildebrand and her husband, John, of Brandon, Mississippi; Jon Fannin and his wife, Shelley, of Baytown; Patti Garza of Pipe Creek; and Ted Fannin and his wife, Angie, of Beaumont; grandchildren, Julie Barnwell and her husband, Doug; David Hildebrand and his wife, Bailie; Josh Fannin, Katelyn Fannin, Ryan Garza and his wife, Peyton; Jennifer Stewart-Richardson and her husband, Ed; Taylor Fannin and his wife, Torie; and Justin Fannin; great-grandchildren, Cora, Audrey, Isla, and Avery; and his sister, Linda Fannin.

He is preceded in death by his parents, beloved wife of 53 years, Audry Fannin; and son-in-law, James Garza.
