

Clint Ray Price

July 31, 1974 - April 1, 2025

Celebrating the Life of
Clint Ray Price

Monday, April 7, 2025 2:00 p.m.

Broussard's Chapel

Silsbee, Texas

Reverend Ralph Bertrand

“Live Like You Were Dying”

by Tim McGraw

Obituary and Opening Remarks

“When I Get Where I’m Going”

by Brad Paisley

Message of Comfort

“Lead Me Home”

by Jamey Johnson

Closing Prayer

Clint Ray Price, 50, of Lumberton, died Tuesday, April 1, 2025. He was born on July 31, 1974, in Beaumont, to Verna Jean Neely Price and Charles Ray Price.

Clint loved to cook and grill. He was always feeding his friends and family, and made sure he fed Aunt Pat and Uncle L.D. He thought he knew everything. Clint loved to sing and thought he could dance. He cheated in every game, especially Monopoly. Clint was a salesman who could sell anything. He was very giving and a wonderful son, a momma's boy at heart. Clint really loved people and was a great friend.

Survivors include his children, Dillen Price of Shepherd; Callie Gonzalez and her husband, Eric, of Willis; and Peyton Lahue and her husband, R.J., of Willis; grandchildren, Tucker Gonzalez, Wylie Kate Gonzalez, and Baker Gonzalez; granddaughter on the way, Lemon Lahue; parents, Verna "Tutti" and Charles Price; and siblings, Christi Swearingen and her husband, Kevin; Kady Sisk and her husband, Jeremie; and Kala Rogers and her husband, Brandon; and numerous nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

He is preceded in death his brother, Michael Price.

Pallbearers

Lanceton Price
Landon Price
Kevin Swearingen
Jeremie Sisk
Chris Welch
James McLean

Interment

Franks Branch Cemetery
Fred, Texas

Broussards
Established 1889

Please sign Clint's guest book and share your memories at broussards1889.com