LD “Larry” Price, 80, of Lumberton passed away peacefully at home surrounded by his family. He was born on June 26, 1944, in Beaumont, to Bertha Loraine and Lud Davis Price.

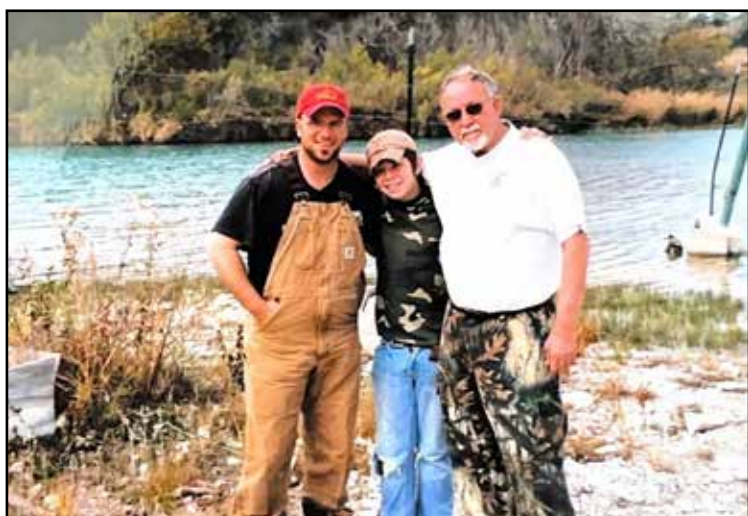

LD retired from Mobil Oil as a Process Operator and Wharf Master. After his retirement, he held multiple positions at Lumberton Independent School District. LD was an avid hunter and loved to travel. He was a coach for Lumberton Little League and served as an official umpire and referee for many sporting events across Southeast Texas. LD was a member of the Young Men’s Business League since 1992. In 2003, he became a lifetime member and in 2009, he became a Key Man. In 2013, LD earned a position on the Key Man Board. He also served on the Board of Directors for seven years. Though he was proud of all the titles and positions he earned, the one that meant the most to him was Unc.

Survivors include his siblings, Patricia “Pat” Price; Brenda Walden and her husband, Gerald; and Charles “Bimbo” Price and his wife, Tutti; his fur-babies, Missy, Bailey, and Steve; and a multitude of nieces, nephews, and other family members.

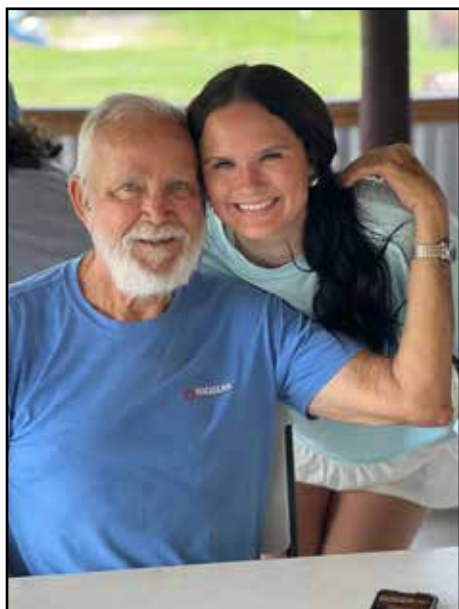

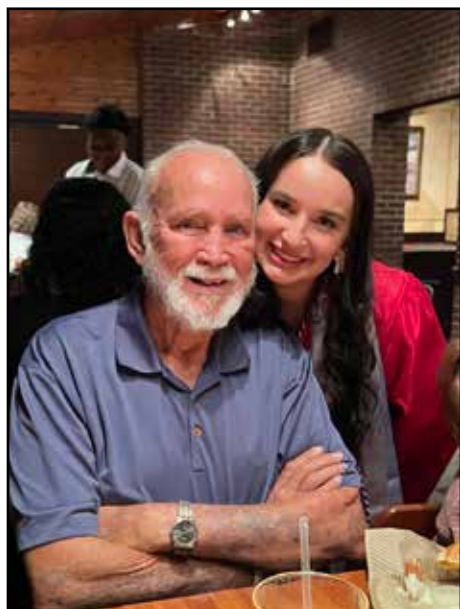

He was preceded in death by his parents; siblings, Kenneth Price; Earl Price; Charlcie Stevenson, James Price, LaPrelle Tiner, and Chester Price; Nephews, Bobby Price, Larry Price, Jim Price, Clint Price, and Michael Price; and niece, Donna Bertrand.
