Cameron Thomas Hughes, 31, of Lumberton, was met by his Heavenly Father on Wednesday, May 22, 2025. He was born on September 7, 1993, in Houston, to Stacey Lynn Reynolds Hughes and Royce Wayne Hughes, Jr.

Cameron attended Lumberton ISD, kindergarten through 12th grade. He was a proud Raider and graduated with the Class of 2012. While in school, he played in Little Dribblers, Lumberton Little League, and Lumberton Raider football. He attended Calvary Baptist Church and later moved his letter to Crestwood Baptist Church, where he was active in the youth group and played his beloved guitar in the praise band. He graduated from LIT with his degree in I&E. He was currently an employee of Mason Construction and took great pride in his job which he often referred to as his “work family.”

Cameron, through his short life, never met a stranger. Cameron was a man with a heart as vast as the outdoors he loved so much. Whether casting a line on quiet waters or trekking through the woods in search of his next adventure, he found joy in nature’s embrace. His greatest treasure, however, was not found in the land or lake—it was his beloved sons, Jesse and Ethan, who were his pride and joy. Cameron had a rare gift for making everyone feel like they were his best friend, always ready to lend a hand, share a laugh, or offer kindness without hesitation. His presence was a comfort, his generosity unmatched, and his spirit will live on in the hearts of all who were lucky enough to know him. While his earthly death leaves a massive void in our lives, we firmly and faithfully believe we will see him again because at six years of age, he asked Jesus into his heart and he proudly claimed Jesus as his personal Lord and Savior.

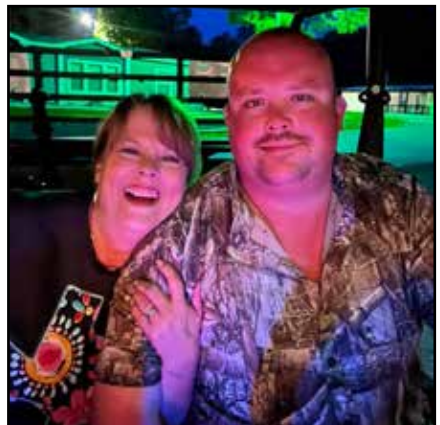

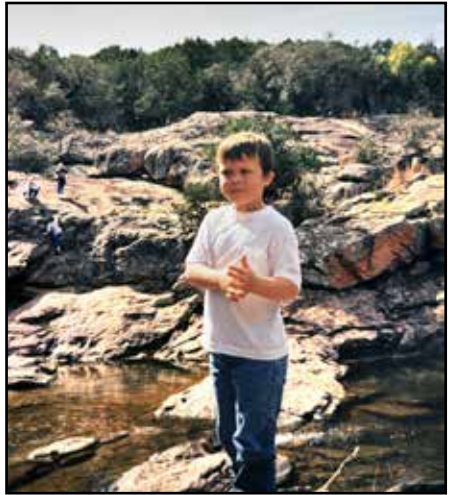

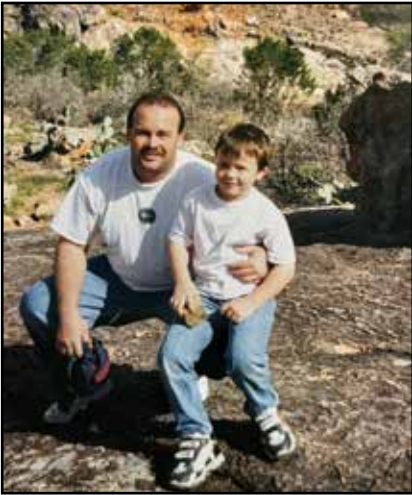

Survivors include the mother of Cameron's children, Beth Brisendine-Hughes; children, Ethan and Jesse; parents, Royce Hughes, Jr. and Stacey Hughes; grandmother, Sandra Carter; aunts and uncles, Alan Hughes and his wife, Kristen; and Jim Reynolds and his wife, Marcia; cousins, Audree, Brielle, Noah, Stephanie and John; as well as numerous co-workers, friends, and loved ones through the years.

He is preceded in death by his grandpappy, Wayne Hughes; his pa, Charlie Carter; his papa, Harold Reynolds; and his me-mother, Ebilene Reynolds.
