Landon Scott Tarver, 22, of Vidor, died, Friday, August 1, 2025. He was born on December 2, 2002, in Kansas City, Missouri, to Christina Pardoe and Christopher Tarver.

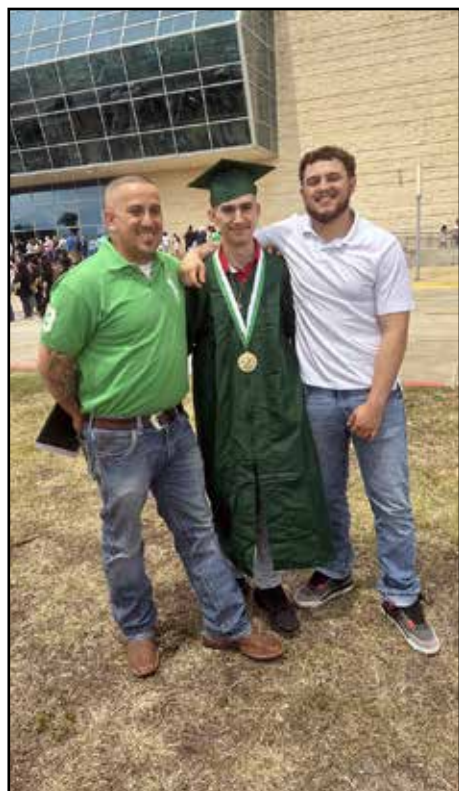

Survivors include his loving wife, Sierra Tarver of Vidor; daughter, Ataly Tarver; father, Christopher Tarver and his wife, Amanda, of Corpus Christi; siblings, Derek Tarver, Bryson Sines, Noah

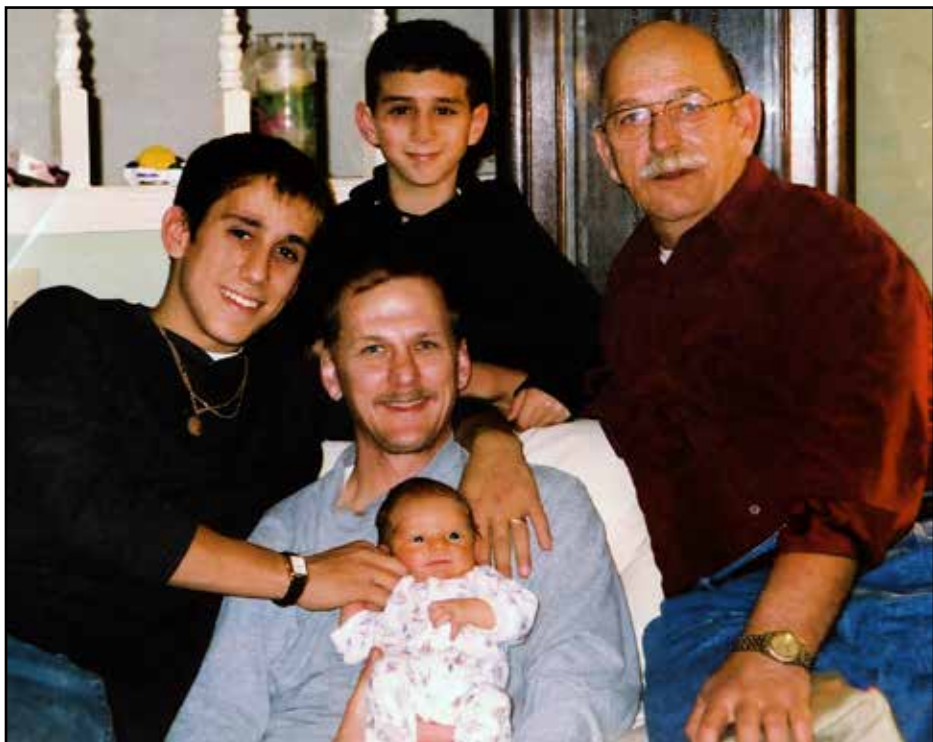

Palomino, and Omar Velez; grandparents, Scott Tarver and his wife, Beatrice, of Buna; great-grandmother, Diana Davis of Gravois Mills, Missouri; aunts and uncles, Joseph and his wife, GeAnn Tarver, of Austin, and Michelle Lopez and her husband, Eric, of Sulphur, Louisiana. He is preceded in death by his mother, Christina Pardoe; great-grandparents, Nancy and Joe Tarver, and Beatrice and Louis Martinez.

Landon was the most giving person you'd ever meet. He was in love with being a father and extremely proud to be a husband. Landon also took pride in being a hard worker and making sure his loved ones were always taken care of. He loved music, sports, collecting sneakers, and his family. Landon was a God-fearing man who loved hard and was loved even harder. He left a lasting impression on everyone he crossed paths with and will be greatly missed.
